Supervisor's Investigation:

Location:

5941 Hollywood Blvd, at the Salvation Army building. Alcove adjacent to the driveway of Hollywood Blvd between the Salvation Army Building and the Salvation Army Church building located on the westside of the driveway.

Incident:

Observational Subject Contact: FB 1 Ofcr Trujillo and Ofcr Carrosquillo observed 2 males subjects possibly committing a robbery of an individual that was lying on the sidewalk. The two subjects were looking into the lying subjects bag. Ofcirs initiated contact to investigate further in fear for the safety of the unknown male transient.

Ofcirs stopped their vehicle facing westbound on Hollywood Blvd and exited their vehicle at which time the 2 subjects walked away westbound. Further investigation revealed it was a possible drug transaction (observed green leafy substance in the bag). The individual lying on the ground was advised that he needed to get up and vacate from the church's property for trespassing. The subject was lying on the ground with his mid torso turned to Ofcr Carrosquillo. Ofcr Carrosquillo observed a fixed bladed knife tucked in the subject's mid waistband over his shirt. Ofcr Carrosquillo immediately warned his partner that the subject had a knife. Ofcr Carrosquillo was approximately 2 to 3 feet from the subject's feet which was positioned south toward Hollywood Blvd. Subject began yelling "Fuck you" while simultaneously getting up in an aggressive manner. In fear for his safety and his partner's safety, Ofcr Carrosquillo drew his service weapon from his holster and held the weapon in a low ready position. The weapon was not pointed at the subject at any time of the incident.

Based on Ofcr's Carrosquillo's extensive prior law enforcement experience with edge weapons, he feared for his life by the subject's aggressive behavior and failure to comply with his verbal commands. Subject was warned not to reach for the knife, but failed to comply with the verbal commands and lifted his shirt with his left hand and produced the knife with his right hand grabbing the handle of the knife and holding it in a threatening manner. Ofcr Trujillo had deployed his OC spray in a ready position as a non-lethal force option. Both ofcirs created distance between the subject for their safety. The subject then threw the knife with his right hand toward a van that was parked facing northbound in the driveway. Subject then gathered his personal effects and left the location after retrieving the knife and left skateboarding away eastbound on Hollywood Blvd.

Based on the officers statements Ofcr Carrosquillo acted appropriately when he drew his weapon in self defense. Ofcr Carrosquillo with his prior experience as an Inglewood Police officer, knowledge of edge weapons, the distance and speed a subject can attack, factored into his decision to draw his weapon for his immediate safety and his partner's safety.

Investigation revealed drawing of the weapon by Ofcr Carrosquillo was in policy and any further action is not warranted at this time
